Re: Application for Chapter 27 Text Amendments
Sections 27-181.5(c) and 27-184 – Table 184, City of Tampa Code
Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center d/b/a “The Straz Center”

Dear Ms. Coyle:

We represent the Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center, Inc., doing business as the Straz Center (the “Straz Center”), in connection with proposed improvements to its “Arrival Plaza” adjacent to Tyler Street in the Central Business District (the “District”). As you are aware, the Arrival Plaza is the front door of the Straz Center, and is used by pedestrians and vehicles alike for the purpose of accessing one of the largest performing arts centers in the South.

These proposed improvements to the Arrival Plaza for the Straz Center are the result of: (a) the City’s contemplated realignment of Tyler Street and Cass Street adjacent to or near the Straz Center; (b) the City’s approval of the development of a large multi-family residential tower immediately north of the Arrival Plaza for the Straz Center (the “AER Tower”); and (c) the already intensifying traffic and parking challenges being faced by the Straz Center. In fact, both the City and the developer of the AER Tower recognized that the realignment of Tyler and Cass Streets, together with the development of the AER Tower project, would have a detrimental impact on access to and operation of the Straz Center, which is already experiencing access, operational and parking issues for performances.

Consequently, changes to the Arrival Plaza, including its expansion, were proposed by the Straz Center, and are recognized by both the City and the developer of the AER Tower as partial mitigation for these negative impacts in their plans and agreements. In fact, the developer of the AER Tower and the Straz Center have entered into an agreement wherein the developer of the AER Tower has agreed to monetarily contribute to the modification and expansion of the Arrival Plaza for the Straz Center, which is one of many steps being taken by the Straz Center to address its existing and future traffic and parking challenges.

The Straz Center, therefore, in November of 2017 filed plans with the City and requested permits for the modifications to its Arrival Plaza as previously contemplated by the Straz Center, the City and the developer of the AER Tower. However, last week, the Straz Center was advised by the City that these plans cannot be permitted by the City because: (1) the plans for the improvements to the Arrival Plaza show eight (8) handicapped parking spaces; (2) part of the Arrival Plaza is currently used for valet and short-term parking for performances and events at the Straz Center; and (3) no surface parking is allowed in the “Waterfront Overlay” of the Central Business District as set forth in Chapter 27 of the City of Tampa Code (“City Code”).

The Arrival Plaza does not currently operate and is not intended to operate in the future as a typical surface parking lot. It is, however, the front door to the Straz Center, and is the only location within the current footprint of the Straz Center, which can both facilitate vehicular and pedestrian access to the front door of the Straz Center and accommodate parking for disabled persons near that front door. Also, similar to other large institutional uses in the Central Business District, the Arrival Plaza provides the only suitable location for valet parking services and for parking for performances and business conducted at the Straz Center.

Therefore, in accordance with Sections 27-148 and 27-149 of the City Code, enclosed with this letter are the following items:

1. The text changes proposed by the Straz Center to Sections 27-181.5(c) and 27-184 – Table 184 of the City Code, which are labeled as Exhibit A to this letter, and which would allow surface parking within the Waterfront Overlay, but only if part of or incidental to a vehicular use area providing access to an existing public or private institutional use or assembly use as said vehicular use area is now existing or as it may be modified or expanded in the future;

2. A sworn statement executed by me verifying that the Straz Center is the “Applicant” in connection with the proposed text amendments attached hereto as Exhibit A and that I am acting as the Straz Center’s authorized agent in this matter; and

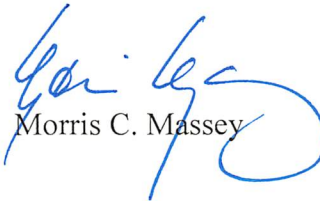

3. The Straz Center’s check in the amount of $648.00 to pay the City’s filing fee for processing the proposed text amendments attached hereto as Exhibit A.

This letter is intended to set forth the reasons (stated above) why Sections 27-181.5(c) and 27-814 – Table 184 should be amended. In addition, I would note that the Tampa Comprehensive Plan recognizes that the “Central Business District” is the “enduring heart of the metropolitan area”, and the Straz Center is a key component of what makes the Central Business District that “enduring heart”, especially in regards to the performing arts, entertainment and education in the form of the Pallavi Patel Conservatory for the Performing Arts. However, a properly functioning Arrival Plaza, which allows some limited parking, is important to the continued health and vitality of the Straz Center.

Sincerely,

Morris C. Massey

Requirements. The following requirements shall apply to all property located in the Waterfront Overlay:

- (a) Variations. Variations of the Waterfront Overlay requirements for building setback, building design, off-street parking, loading, and/or Riverwalk improvements may be considered through the design district review process, subject to the procedure and review criteria set forth in section 27-60.1.
- (b) Riverwalk. The Riverwalk design standards are established to provide a design framework, which requires a certain level of quality, enhances the water's edge to attract pedestrian use, and provides a continuity of pedestrian scale and rhythm between ownership parcels. Refer to section 27-183, Table 183 for additional standards.
 - (1) Any property owner or authorized entity proposing to construct any portion of the Riverwalk or connection thereto, or to construct a building or structure on any property within the Waterfront Overlay, shall construct that portion of the Riverwalk (respective to the subject property) in compliance with the design standards set forth in the "The Tampa Riverwalk Masterplan," completed in July 2006, herein adopted by reference. Previous standards for the Riverwalk, adopted by reference in this code (prior to June 1, 2016), were set forth in the "Riverwalk Design Standards," June 1989 edition.
 - (2) General. The elevation along the riverwalk shall be held to specifications to ensure handicapped requirements are met. Continuity of the riverwalk across ownership parcels shall be maintained to facilitate public access use and enjoyment. The design of the riverwalk shall be integrated with all intersecting streetscape designs.
 - (3) Encroachments. No construction, improvements, structures, decorations, signs, furniture, awnings and displays will be undertaken or placed on, in, under, or over the Riverwalk, without the written approval of the property owner and the city or an authorized Riverwalk management association, if such entity lawfully operates and holds such authority.
- (c) Building design, off-street parking, and loading requirements. All new construction and major renovations of properties/structures within the Waterfront Overlay, shall meet the requirements set forth in section 27-183, Table 183. All off-street, surface parking spaces/lots/areas are prohibited in the waterfront overlay (refer to section 27-184, Table 184) except that surface parking, which is part of or incidental to a vehicular use area providing access to an existing Public or Private Institutional Use or an existing public Assembly Use as listed in CBD Table 184, as said vehicular use area is now existing or as it may be modified or enlarged in the future, shall be permitted.
