

“Covid Friendly”

“Masks Required”

BRADLC Museum 501(C)3 & Tampa Park Plaza Present:

“Oh Freedom!!” 1st Annual Juneteenth Commemoration

Saturday June 19, 2021 – 10:00-4:00 pm

Live Music and Poets, Historical Acts, African Drummer, Genealogy and History, Cultural Fashion Show, Book Sale, Vendors, Food

Come and support our Disabled Veteran and Woman Owned Nonprofit Museum & Bookstore. We are dedicated to the education and enlightenment of diverse audiences, featuring literary contributions of Africans across the Diaspora. Their ancestors were forced into enslavement and forbidden to read and write for centuries. Our bookstore carries new, vintage and first editions, children's, signed books, authentic Gullah Geechee Art, Greeting Cards, Calendars, African Jewelry, Cultural Masks and Gifts.

Gigi Best-Richardson/Skip Richardson
Owners/Curators/Booksellers
1463 Tampa Park Plaza
813-944-2112

Preserving our Historic Literary Writers and Their Culture

www.bradlcmuseum.com
IG: bradlcmuseumandbooks
FB: bradlcmuseumbookstore
bradlcmuseum@gmail.com