VOLUNTARY EXTENSION OF TIME FOR PROPERTIES WITHIN THE CITY OF TAMPA FOR NO SALES OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

Per Section 27-318 If a property has not been posted, a property owner may apply to the zoning administrator for a voluntary extension of time not to exceed one hundred eighty (180) consecutive days upon the initial approval of the extension. The owner must provide evidence that supports an intent not to abandon the sales of alcoholic beverages as part of the application.

If approved, the site will not be posted within the one hundred eighty (180) day extension period; however, if the circumstances change within this period, the property may be subject to either expiration or posting of notice unless resumption of sales is proved.

The extension may be renewed for no more than one hundred eighty (180) consecutive days upon resubmittal and submission of additional evidence supporting the extension request.

If the sale of alcoholic beverages has resumed, the written notification and associated documentation as described below must be filed with the zoning administrator. The following documentation, if applicable to the subject property, shall be submitted as evidence that the sale of alcoholic beverages has resumed:

- i. A notarized "Resumption of Sales" form (available online) including the date alcoholic beverages sales resumed, and,
- ii. The most current invoices, delivery receipts, and payments to a distributor of alcoholic beverages; and,
- iii. The most current records of state sales tax payments; and,
- iv. The most current records of electric usage, consumption, and payment of same for the property or establishment; and
- v. The most current records of water usage, consumption, and payment of same for the property or establishment; and
- vi. Photographs of the property or establishment that demonstrate compliance with property maintenance and structural standards in Chapter 19; and
- vii. Copy of a valid and current alcoholic beverage sales license from the State of Florida; and
- viii. Copy of valid and current city business tax receipt; and,
- ix. Copy of valid and current occupational license.

The documentation, collectively, must at a minimum demonstrate on going sales activity, the possession of a valid state and local license, and continual operation and maintenance of the property. The zoning administrator shall review and evaluate the documentation provided and determine whether the sales of alcoholic beverages have resumed in accordance with this chapter. The zoning administrator shall advise the property owner and the holder of the alcoholic beverage license in writing of his/her determination.
