Call To Artists

West Tampa Street Intersection Murals

This is a call for Artists who:

- Have an interest in creating street intersection murals in West Tampa
- Recognize the value of celebrating the diversity of West Tampa
- Have experience in street or asphalt murals
- Are visual artists that can mix their own specific colors from primary traffic paint
- Can agree to a specific painting schedule

Budget Range: up to $30,000.00.

Application materials must be received electronically by April 20, 2025

About: The West Tampa Community Redevelopment Area (CRA) invites artists to apply to be considered for the creation of 3 street intersection murals. These three murals will be painted at 3 separate times. The road will be closed by the City of Tampa and will have police on site for the road closure. The road closures will take place over the weekend. Schedule is tentative. Road closures and Police fee will not come out of artist budget. Possible community involvement during the painting days so the artist will need to plan accordingly for this. Each area will need to be painted in the allotted road closure timeframe. Each intersection has been recently refinished and is ready for paint.

Eligibility /Qualifications: This opportunity is open to all regional artists around Tampa Florida Area both emerging and established artists, who have completed projects for private clients, public agencies or for grassroots/community projects. Public street mural art experience is required for this call. Artist must use high quality traffic paint. Preferable paint to use is Gorilla Acrylic Zone Marking Traffic Paint. This paint only comes in primary colors so the artist will need to be knowledgeable in mixing their own paint. Artists once selected will be compensated for their designs.

Locations:

Main St and Albany St

Main St and Fremont St

Rome Ave and Fig St

These murals will be contained within the crosswalk. Once selected: If the artist proposal utilizes the crosswalk that may be considered.

Selection Process:

Information and materials submitted in response to this RFQ will be evaluated by a committee comprised of arts professionals, and West Tampa CRA designees to determine eligibility to apply for specific opportunities.
