

Harrison Boonstoppel – Honorary Naming

City Council Motion 24-9960

That the Administration be requested to rename the New Tampa All Abilities Playground after the late Harrison Boonstoppel. (Viera-Henderson)

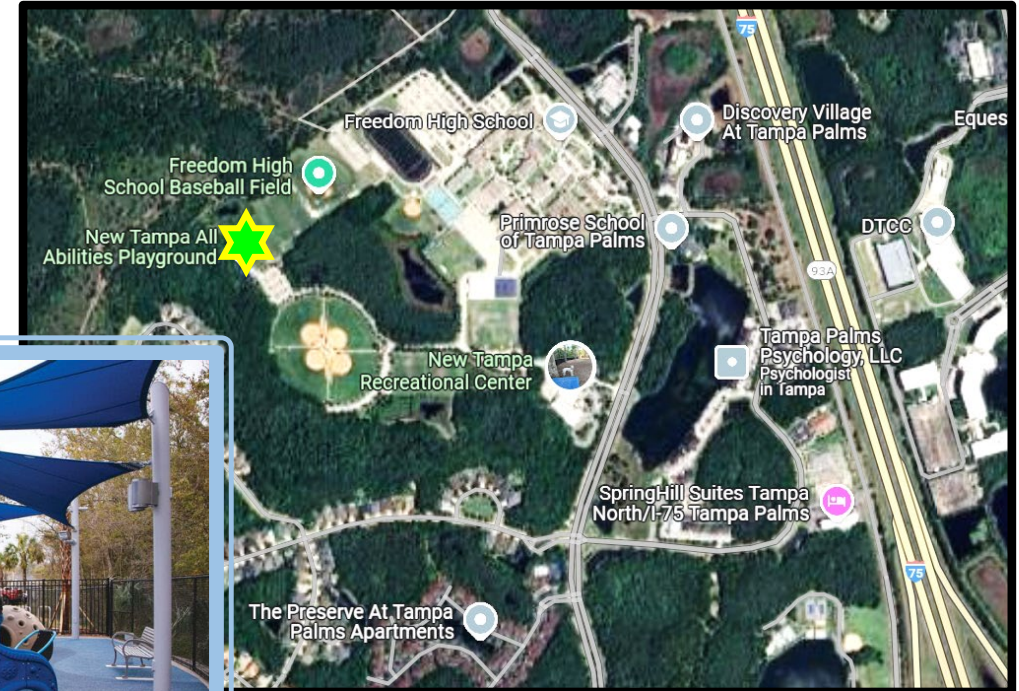

Harrison Boonstoppel was born on June 8, 2003 and his life was a testament to resilience and determination, exemplifying the power of hard work along with the support from his family. Despite facing many physical and developmental challenges, Harrison overcame many obstacles throughout his life with unwavering perseverance. He graduated from Pepin Academies in 2022, a remarkable achievement that highlighted his growth both academically and socially.

At the time of his tragic passing on October 29, 2023, at the age of 20, Harrison had become a strong independent young man, working and taking college courses. Honorably remembering Harrison, shows that with hard work, support, and positive outlook, one can overcome much adversity.

Harrison Boonstoppel – Honorary Naming of the New Tampa All Abilities Playground

Harrison Boonstoppel meets the criteria for consideration for honorary naming of a Minor City-owned asset per Ordinance 2023-63, Section 2-828 (B)(2), (4), (6), and (7).

Parks & Recreation has reviewed the proposal and there are no identified conflicts to the renaming the New Tampa All Abilities Playground in honor of Harrison Boonstoppel.
