

Proclamation

Bob Buckhorn, Mayor

WHEREAS, philanthropy is defined by love of humanity and the caring for, nourishing, developing, and enhancing what it is to be human through initiatives for public good, focusing on quality of life, and the generosity of others who have contributed to the growth of the United States of America and have had a profound impact on the success of our society; and

WHEREAS, since 1874, 92nd Street Y (92Y) in New York has been serving its community and the world, and its mission is the promotion of individual and family development and participation in civic life within the context of Jewish values and American pluralism, and reaches out beyond its core of American Jews to serve people of diverse racial, religious, ethnic and economic backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, giving back is central to the 92Y vision and together with The United Nations Foundation established #GivingTuesday in 2012, bringing together non-profit organizations, businesses and individuals on the Tuesday following Thanksgiving for the purpose of raising funds for worthy causes around the country; and

WHEREAS, with Black Friday and Cyber Monday well-known as days that are good for the economy, #GivingTuesday has been created as a day that is good for the soul, and in 2013, more than 10,000 partners worldwide participated, and through the power of social media more than 3 billion people helped spread the #GivingTuesday message, resulting in a 270 percent increase in donations; and

WHEREAS, Rebuilding Together Tampa Bay, an affiliate chapter of Rebuilding Together, Inc. whose mission is bringing volunteers and communities together to improve the homes and lives of low-income homeowners, Tampa Metropolitan Area YMCA, Crisis Center of Tampa Bay, Metropolitan Ministries, Guardian ad Litem Foundation of Tampa Bay, and many other local and state organizations, will join in this global effort, and on December 2, 2014 will participate in #GivingTuesday by asking those in the community to remember to be generous to those less fortunate during this special holiday season.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Buckhorn, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Tampa, Florida, do hereby proclaim December 2, 2014 as in the City of Tampa, Florida, and urge all citizens to recognize the tradition of philanthropy and incorporate generosity into their holiday planning to enhance the lives of all those who reside in our community.

Dated in Tampa, Florida, this 18th day of November, 2014.
