

Proclamation

Bob Buckhorn, Mayor

WHEREAS, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority (ΔΣΘ), Incorporated is an organization of college-educated women who perform public service initiatives, and has grown over the years to become the largest African-American Greek-lettered sorority in the world with alumnae and collegiate chapters located throughout the United States and around the world, including the Bahamas, Bermuda, England, Germany, Jamaica, Japan, the Republic of Korea and the United States Virgin Islands; and

WHEREAS, established in 1913 by twenty-two women on the Howard University Campus in Washington, D.C., the organization remains true to the Founders' vision of promoting academic excellence, providing scholarship assistance, supporting the underserved, educating and stimulating participation in the establishment of positive public policy, and highlighting issues and providing solutions to problems in their communities; and

WHEREAS, with its biennium theme, Uncompromising Commitment to Communities: Service, Leadership, Empowerment Delta Sigma Theta Sorority is faithfully committed to the Five Point Programmatic Thrust of Economic Development, Educational Development, International Awareness and Involvement, Physical and Mental Health, and Political Awareness and Involvement; and

WHEREAS, Delta Sigma Sorority began their commitment to service one-hundred and three years ago with their participation in the 1913 Women's Suffrage March on Washington, D.C., and remain active members in organizations such as the National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC), the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and National Council of Negro Women (NCNW); and

WHEREAS, the members of the Tampa Alumnae and Tampa Metropolitan Alumnae Chapters of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. are actively involved in the community, providing support and volunteer services to needy families, scholarships to deserving students, advocacy and education, award-winning programs and partnerships, and as part of the national Delta Days program, they visit the City of Tampa annually to bring their mission to local government and allow the opportunity for interaction with elected officials to foster knowledge and understanding.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Buckhorn, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the city of Tampa, Florida, do hereby proclaim Thursday, March 17, 2016 as in the city of Tampa and urge all citizens to join me in congratulating Delta Sigma Theta, Inc. on its dedication and success for over a century, and in thanking them and the Tampa Bay Chapter members for all they have contributed to our community, nation, and the world over the years.

Dated in Tampa, Florida, this 17th day of March, 2016.

Bob Buckhorn

Mayor
