

Proclamation

Jane Castor, Mayor

WHEREAS, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT) Pride is defined as the positive stance against discrimination and violence toward lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people, to promote their self-affirmation, dignity, and equality rights, increase their visibility as a social group, build community, and celebrate sexual diversity and gender variance; and

WHEREAS, cities around the globe celebrate LGBT Pride with rallies, marches, parades, commemorations, community days, concerts and large festivals, and during this time diversity and the positive impact LGBT individuals have on the world is celebrated, and we are reminded that every generation has brought us closer to true equality, and recent achievements confirm that people never stop striving towards absolute equality for everyone; and

WHEREAS, individually and collectively, members of Tampa's LGBT community contribute greatly to neighborhood revitalization, economic vitality, arts and culture, and the social fabric of our city, county, state, and nation; and

WHEREAS, one of the first cities in the region to have a domestic partnership registry, the City of Tampa prides itself on its inclusiveness and it protects its residents from discrimination and harassment based on actual or perceived race, color, sex, religion, disability, age, marital status, place of birth, families with children, sexual orientation or national origin, and is committed to continued social progress and the cause of human rights, celebrating the great diversity of our community; and

WHEREAS, Tampa Pride, Inc. is a non-profit corporation and its membership is a representation of all aspects of the Tampa Bay area and includes professionals, business owners, community leaders, retirees, and individuals who promote and provide a safe, tolerant, and welcoming focal point for LGBT individuals from around the region, state and nation, and are committed to demonstrating diversity as a community through celebration and an annual festival; and

WHEREAS, Tampa Pride, Inc. will celebrate diversity, social progress, and the cause of human rights and equality with its 2020 theme Many Voices, One Vision throughout the 6th Annual Tampa Pride Festival and Diversity Parade Celebration on Saturday, March 28, 2020, in Historic Ybor City, and this year includes Tampa Pride at Night held at El Circulo Cubano de Tampa (The Cuban Club.)

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jane Castor, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the city of Tampa, Florida do hereby proclaim Saturday, March 28, 2020 as in the city of Tampa, Florida and urge all citizens to join in ending prejudice everywhere it may exist, respect the rights of all people, and come together to celebrate the diversity and richness of our city by supporting and participating in the Tampa Pride Festival and Diversity Parade and the Tampa Pride at Night event.

Dated in Tampa, Florida, this 28th day of March, 2020.

Mayor
