Premiere Global Leadership Event Comes to Tampa

Tampa, FL. — The Global Leadership Summit, the world's premiere annual leadership event, is coming to Tampa through a simulcast on August 7-8 hosted by Crossover Church.

The 2025 Global Leadership Summit is a two-day event that will equip participants with high-impact leadership talks on topics like failure, communication frequencies, teamwork and storytelling in leadership.=

Attendees will hear from 15+ world-class speakers from diverse fields, including:

- Craig Groeschel — Founder and Senior Pastor, Life.Church
- John C. Maxwell — Leadership expert and bestselling author
- Stephanie Chung — Former Chief Growth Officer of Wheels Up
- Bradley Rapier — Award-winning choreographer
- Tasha Eurich, Ph.D. — Organizational psychologist
- Gabriel Salguero — President of the National Latino Evangelical Coalition

Crossover Church is among 400 local sites hosting the Summit around the U.S., and it is projected that 60,000 people in the U.S. alone will attend. Participants will be inspired and equipped with the leadership skills necessary to shape a better tomorrow.

The Global Leadership Summit will also be experienced in over 110 countries and 55 languages worldwide beginning in the fall. The Summit is a nonprofit that also makes the event available to 300 prisons and non-profits serving at-risk populations.
