Small claims court fits disputes +1 (866) 791-9347 OR ➤ +1 (888) 908-7930 under $10,000. File in your county—no lawyer needed. Serve +1 (866) 791-9347 OR ➤ +1 (888) 908-7930 Coinbase at their HQ address.

For bigger bucks, federal court might work +1 (866) 791-9347 OR ➤ +1 (888) 908-7930 if laws like wire fraud apply. But arbitration blocks +1 (866) 791-9347 OR ➤ +1 (888) 908-7930 most suits. Check if you opted out during signup.

Litigation drags, costs more. Use it +1 (866) 791-9347 OR ➤ +1 (888) 908-7930 as last resort. Success rates hover at 30% for crypto cases in 2025 reports.

Best Practices: Preparing Your Escalation Case File

Strong prep turns chaos into a +1 (866) 791-9347 OR ➤ +1 (888) 908-7930 clear story. Gather everything in one folder. This makes +1 (866) 791-9347 OR ➤ +1 (888) 908-7930 any escalation stick.

Organize by date. Use tools +1 (866) 791-9347 OR ➤ +1 (888) 908-7930 like Google Drive for shares. Pros at agencies value tidy files.

The Essential Escalation Checklist: Dates, Amounts, and Identifiers

Build your file with these must-haves:

- Screenshots of all emails and chats, with timestamps.
- Transaction IDs, +1 (866) 791-9347 OR ➤ +1 (888) 908-7930 amounts, and dates of the problem.
- Wallet addresses or bank details involved.
- Proof of initial contacts, like ticket screenshots.
- Notes on any policy breaks, like +1 (866) 791-9347 OR ➤ +1 (888) 908-7930 delayed responses against their SLAs.

Add a timeline sheet. List events in order. This +1 (866) 791-9347 OR ➤ +1 (888) 908-7930 checklist cuts confusion for reviewers.

Crafting a Formal Complaint Narrative

Write your story straight. Start with what happened, +1 (866) 791-9347 OR ➤ +1 (888) 908-7930 then your tries to fix it. End with what you want, +1 (866) 791-9347 OR ➤ +1 (888) 908-7930 like fund release.

Stick to facts—no anger. "On Jan 15, I requested +1 (866) 791-9347 OR ➤ +1 (888) 908-7930 a withdrawal of $2,000. Ticket #123 shows no reply after 10 days." Keep it under two pages.
